The Tongue Needs Training for Clear Playing

By good articulation we mean a good method of making the instrument speak naturally, clearly, and intelligibly, so that one perfectly understands what the performer means. The most powerful agent in clear articulation on a wind instrument is the Exercise in which the slur and the tongue touch the palate are freely used will develop more marked articulation. Badness should be a clear articulation. Bandsmen should strive to play their music exactly as it is written, even to the minutest detail.

Don't be Shirkers

A brilliant young writer who felt in the war wrote in effect: 'A great soul will be content to remain unnoticed when no post of honor opens to him, but he is a shirker who will not accept responsibility when he call to duty'.

The words in the parable, 'I was afraid, and went and hid my talent,' were spoken by one who was brought to book for neglected opportunity and shirked responsibility; and since each of us is travelling forward to meet her life again, and to give an account of it to God, is it not wisdom to face the facts now?

Are we because of fear shirking

the duty of spreading the Gospel? Such excuse will appear sadly in the light of the Judgment.

In one of the northern villages where God is working miracles of Salvation a girl of fourteen was wondering how she could get away from her parents to go to the city where there were so many opportunities of gaining information.

any work which we could undertake? Of what are we afraid? Some women are held paralyzed between their vision and their fear. They are afraid to take their own idealism and make it their way. If they undertake a thing they like to do to well, whether it be to make a cake or a baby's frock, they are afraid to make it different from the way that other women do. They are desperately saved from sin. Called upon to give their testimony, and not being used to Army ways or phraseology, the child went on to the platform, and raising her hand to Heaven and looking upward, cried simply:

"I am not afraid of anything, for I am delivering His messages. No woman can hide behind fear more terrifying than the fear of man. I am not afraid more paralyzing than that which hinders our Army Mother a captive, until I see God's strength she broke free. God is not afraid of anything."

Our friends are invited to deposit their money with us. Money is urgently needed for the erection of suitable buildings to meet the increasing demands for the work of the Salvation Army throughout the Territory.

A good rate of interest is paid every half year, March and September, and negotiations are treated with the utmost confidence.

In placing money with the Army in this way, depositors are at no disadvantage to themselves, while the money so loaned is being used for the extension of the Kingdom of God and the saving of souls.

Loans may be withdrawn at any time, in accordance with the terms of the arrangement made with the depositor.

A rousing Salvation meeting was conducted on a recent Sunday by Captain and Mrs. Bell. One seeker came forward. On Monday, Mrs. Adjutant White, of Toronto, led the meeting and another seeker knelt at the mercy seat.

TRUMPHANT TRUST.

Tune—"Dreadful" 183 "Cade Mal Great" 183

Blessed Lord, in Thee is refuge,
Safety for my trembling soul,
Power to lift my head when drooping
'Midst the angry billows' roll.
I will trust Thee,
All my life Thou shalt control.

In the past too unbelieving
'Midst the tempest I have been,
And my heart has slowly trusted
What my eyes have never seen.
Blessed Jesus,
Teach me on Thy arm to lean.

Oh, for trust that brings the triumph
And sin, that defeat seems almost near!
Oh, for faith that changes fighting
Into victory's ringing cheer—
Faith triumphant,
Knowing not defeat or fear!

CONTINUAL JOY.

Tune—"Poor Old Jim" 179, S. & 273.

Gone are the days of wretchedness
and sin,
Gone are the days of conflicts fierce within,
Gone far away, no more my soul to
know,
My Saviour's Blood my heart is keeping white as snow.
Gone are the days when a Saviour's
love I spurned,
Gone are the times when from Cal-

scene I turned;
Gone, to be brought against me never-
more,
My Saviour's Blood has brought my pardon, safe and sure.
Gone are the doubts of a soul that
dared not trust,
Gone are the fears of a heart by sorrow crushed;
Gone, by the Blood swept far from me
away,
And now I live in constant rapture
and joy.

A GREAT INVITATION.

Tune—"Make No Doubt" S.M.I. 127, S. & 34.

Come to the Saviour, make no delay,
Here in His Word He's shown up the way!
Here in our midst He's standing today,
Tenderly saying, "Come!"

Chorus

Joyful, joyful, will the meeting be,
When from ain our hearts are pure
and free;
And we shall gather, Saviour, with Thee,
In our eternal home!

Think once again, He's with us to-day,
Heed not His best commands, and obey!
Hear now His accents tenderly say,
"Come to your Saviour, come!"
